World Peace Is Topic at Meet of Women Club

International Relations Meeting at Clubhouse on Tuesday Afternoon

The International Relations Day program arranged by Miss Lydia Pringle, chairman of the international relations committee of the Women's Club, was both instructive and entertaining Tuesday.

Mrs. P. E. Keeler of Long Beach, the luncheon speaker, discussed "The World Court and Peace." Mrs. Keeler said: "The most potent factor of war is fear. Fear is not being afraid; fear is believing that we are surrounded by dangers. We must cast out fear. A better understanding of the ideals and aims of nations is needed, and the sooner we understand that the Golden Rule is the working basis of nations the sooner we will have more of the brotherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Then war will cease."

K. S. Bean, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Council of International Relations for Community Education, said: "When nations can come to the council table and talk over their difficulties and understand each other, then war will cease. War is the outcome of misunderstanding. What good is education, art, or anything else, if war is to wipe them out? War will cease when the earth is filled with more men of good will."

Dancing Enjoyed
Pupils of Eleanor Turley, instructor of dancing and dramatics of the Los Angeles Institute of Art, presented a "Dance of Nations" each danced in the costume of that country. Beginning with Scotland, Peggy Lee Amberson represented a "Highland Lassie"; Japan, "Cherry Blossom"; Yvonne Stone and Mary Hodgins, Spain, "Carmelita"; Dora Louise Spacher; Egypt, "Egyptienne"; Yvonne Stone; Russia, "Trepah"; Peggy Lee Amberson; Italy, "Roman Warrior"; Ysabel Weyse; China, "Pee-Chee-Lee"; Betty Ginter, Primitive, when periods, the Primitive, when Yvonne Stone as an Indian gave a "Wolf Dance," and the Period of 1860, represented by Peggy Lee Amberson, Peggy Davis, Marguerita Rockhold, Marjorie Kenyon, Mary Hodgins, Yvonne Stone, Dora Burgher, and Doris Hand. In hoop skirts and mantlettes they trod the stately measures of that day. Although we are led to believe powdering the nose is an evil of this day, these dainty maidens were noticed powdering theirs. Warren Creamer, accompanied by Ruth Boomer, pianist, gave several violin numbers during the afternoon. Miss Boomer and Mr. Creamer also played the accompaniments for the dancers.

During the business session Mrs. Parks, on behalf of the club, thanked all who had helped to make the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce dinner such a success last Thursday night.

Mrs. Parks announced a talk to be given by Dr. Charles A. Barker, former medical aide to President Taft, on Feb. 18 at 2:30 in the Philharmonic Auditorium, Los Angeles. This talk on "The Relationship of Mother and Daughter" is free.

More gifts have been received by the club, including a beautiful American flag from Miss Pringle and two pictures from the Pacific Electric Company.

Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, treasurer, friends are welcome. held by the club at the stockholders' meeting.
